1st December 2013 – Milton Keynes, UK.

J2Press is proud to announce the launch of the first quarterly issue of Photoshoot Magazine, available to view digitally online via its website. This represents an exciting mixture of a behind the scenes publication for photographers, models, makeup artists and creatives with new photographic talent, design, renowned makeup artists, and models, in a new, sleek and elegant format.

Each issue will contain:

- Makeup and Fashion - articles for the latest seasonal designs and products
- Fatal Attractions – our team out and about reviewing to-die-for events, shows and products
- Inspector Gadget – the latest gadgets and accessories on the market with a different theme in every issue
- Men Only - for the latest seasonal fashion and beauty products just for men
- The latest news on new lines and products - cultural highlights and a no-nonsense guide to the season's trends and exclusive interviews
- Original and contemporary in-house creative shoots - produced by the Photoshoot Magazine Team

Particular attention has been given to the magazine's readers on various levels, by including Gallery Pages and the regular feature Your Shoot, where the editors turn the tables and give readers the opportunity to appear within the pages of the magazine. We want to promote other photographers, models and makeup artist in realising their dreams!

J2Press is an independent publishing house that was formed in 2011 to assist authors to self-publish, both electronically and printed.
